

Studio 8 Portrait Shoot Guide

before your shoot

if you would like to book a shoot with us please call us on 01865 842 525 or feel free to pop in and book it in person.

we understand it can be hard to get everybody together so we offer weekend and evening sessions.

the studio session

spend up to an hour in our spacious Oxford studio (half an hour for mini session) our photographers will capture lots of contemporary photos to please everybody!

Bring along any props, changes of clothes and plenty of enthusiasm and you are bound to have a great time.

try to arrive on time, this makes it a much more enjoyable experience without feeling rushed.

remember to be relaxed! don't be shy about any ideas you may have, we want to make sure you get the best photos possible.

within the hour we have plenty of time to capture large groups/smaller groups and any individual shots you would like.

we have a spacious studio along with changing facilities and mirrors to make sure you are looking your best.

if booking a shoot with small children think about the best time of day to do so, you want them to be looking their best!

bring any toys/ props that are important to you and you would like in your photos!

think about how you would like to look in your shoot, smart casual etc, try not to clash with colours or patterns!

our team of photographers will be hand the whole time you are here to help with any ideas you may have for photographs as well as talking about your options of how to display your photos afterwards.

more . . .

post production

after your shoot our team of designers will then get your photos looking their best ready for you to come back and see the viewing

the next step is for you to see your amazing photos. we can do this here in our viewing room allowing you to see all your images on our large screen.

we will show you all your pictures in colour and black & white to give you the widest range possible to choose from.

the products

once you have chosen which images you like we have plenty of different ways of displaying them. choose from our various products ranging from classic to more contemporary options which will look great in your home - see our website for examples!

Thats it - great photos are coming your way - call us today!!

